

Michael Abebe

Summary

Michael Abebe is an experienced IT project manager with strong business acumen and a PMP certification. He has successfully led digital transformation projects across the retail and logistics sectors, consistently delivering outcomes on time and within budget. His strategic vision and leadership help align technical solutions with long-term organizational goals.